Henry+Horne helps beautify playground at Mesa elementary school

Mesa—February 17, 2018— Thirteen Henry+Horne employees helped beautify the playground at a Mesa elementary school with a few fresh coats of paint.

The Firm teamed up with Playworks to paint the basketball and tetherball courts, playground stairs and other recess areas at Roosevelt Elementary School in Mesa. What was once plain old concrete is now bright shades of red, yellow, green and blue. The paint job was a surprise for the kids when they returned from the Presidents Day holiday weekend.

Henry+Horne also donated $1,500 from the employee-funded Jeans Jar to supply all the painting materials.
